"Wno Manx You!" - One of the ladies connec-ted with the "Methodist Five Points Mission," no has under her charge some thirty little boys, called them together on the morning of Christhe intended to put them before the visitors during afternoon. After arranging them properly, he first boy on the right, in answer to the question "who made you!" was to say "God." The next, "Of what were you made?" reply, "The hast of the earth," and so on through the Catechism. The all important moment having arrived, the little "shavers" were told to stand up. The little head boy, it seems, was missing but the fact being unnoticed by the teacher, she proceeded with the question, "who made you!" which elicited the following laughable answer: "I was made out of A. BIERCE.] de dirt of the 'ert, but the little feller what God made has got the belly-ache and gone home."

PAINFUL BUT LAUGHABLE .- In "Notes of an Army Surgeon" we had the following:

I remember one day, in making my hospital rounds, a patient just arrived presented an amputated fore-arm, and so doing could scarcely restrain a broad laugh; the titter was constantly on his face.

"What is the matter! This does not strike me as a subject of laughter."

"It is not, doctor, but excuse me, I lost my arm in so funny a way that I still laugh when I look at it."

"What way?"

"Our first sergeant wanted shaving, and got me to attend to it, as I am corporal. We went together in front of his tent: I had lathered him. took him by the nose, and was just about applying the razor, when a cannon ball came, and that was the last I saw of his head and my arm. Excuse me, doctor, for laughing so, but I never saw such a thing before."

SPIRITUALISM .- Judge Edmonds, in his late lecture at Worcester, as we learn from the Spy, gave the following fact a confirming the doctrine of spiritual interest in the affairs of men:-"Before any accounts had been received from the San Francisco steamer, a medium in New York had received and written out a full account of her loss. of the rescue of a portion of her passengers by the three ships, of the number that was lost, with a particular description of the persons and dress of the two female passengers whose names were not known; and that the account agreed entirely with the facts as afterwards ascertained."

65 Show us a lady's bonnet, and we'll tell you what sort of an institution she is. If it is showered with red ribbons, cupids, bows, etc., she is as full of love and poetry, as a country inn of politicians and lovers. If it goes in for the simple wrinkles, plain colors, and a couple of modest (gealers in Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Crockery, Hardware Boots and Shoes, etc., at the old stand of S. Day, Ravenna, O knots, she is a perfect jewel, sweet, sunny, mild, but as affectionate as a freshly nursed kitten. If it is "stuck all over" with a paradise of clover, three story ostrich feathers, wax hollyhocks and juniper berries, put it square down that the cali- Doa co is a single establishment and will never see a fortieth birth-day. Bonnets are a true index of one of our Courts. We annex his testimony; "Your name is Flunkey, I believe?"

"Yes, Sir, Robert Flunkey." "Well, Mr. Flunkey, you say the defendant is no gentleman. What makes you think so!" "Cause, sir, he always says 'Thank you,' when I hand him a mutton-chop, or even a bit of bread. Now, a real gentleman never does this, but hollers 'Here, Bill, get me a mutton-chop, or I will throw the pepper-box at your head. You can't deceive me with a gentleman, your Worship .-'em on the race-course."

GRAPHIC .- A country paper lately got up an account of the fire in this city, at the corner of Congress and Butter streets, headed-"Destructive fire, eleven buildings, ten horses and one cow in ruins!"

"Charley, don't you think women are at the bottom of all mischief?" "Don't know, Bob; but when I was a youngster and bent on any mischief, my mother generally found her way to my bottom."

60 A yankee once asked an attorney how an heiress might be carried off. "You cannot do it with safety," said the counsellor, "but I will tell you what you may do. Let her mount a horse. and hold a bridle-whip; do you then mount behind her, and you are sale for she runs away with you, in lieu of your running away with her." The next day the lawyer found that it was his own daughter who had run away with his client.

The subscribes also continues to imanufacture and furnish Willer's Patent Safe, (being the direct in the United Sistes to whom the patent was assigned) which has been favorably and widely known and seknowledged as the Patent Safe, until the discovery of Herring's Piro and Burgiar proof safe, which are now of fored as the Onserve's Safe.

The advectiber would offer the following recent testimony in favor of Herring's Fire proof safes.

EXTRACT FION A LETTER DATER

SLAS C. HERRITG: Sie—Your felder of inquiry respecting the burning of our store and fits of safe duly came to hand. The fire was discovered in our three story brick store shout 3 o'wlook in the mercing. The afe was on the first Soor, in the store room, over some casks of theseed and lamp oil in the beasement, and an attempt to rescue the safe dirty came to hurst with great rapidity, soon causing the floor with the safe to fall into the basement under the burning timber and combustible materials of the upper stories. It remained in this situation until the fire subsided, so that it could be reached with chains, and was then dragged out nearly or quite red het, the outside pintes warped, and part of the wheels melted off. The safe contained bank bills, books, note and papers to a large amount, which would have been irretrievably lost to us had they been destroyed;

We supposed when the safe was removed from the fire and intense heat to which it had been so long exposed, that its contents must be destroyed; but upon opening it, to our surprise and satisfaction, we found the contents in a perfect state of preservation, except the binding of som preservation, except the binding of some of the books being a little discolored.

Respectfully yours,
S. A. & R. A. Gilley.
